Who's Who?

FULL TIME STAFF

VALERIE MELTON
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

My favorite holiday traditions involve meals with my family.

If Valerie could choose a super power it would be the ability to withstand heat and not sweat. She believes the people are the greatest strength of our organization and in fact it's the staff that inspires her because of how hard they work. Her spirit animal is a goat because they scream and faint and if she were a crayon she would be wild watermelon.

Joe would like the super power of mind reading. He is inspired by anyone who has to work harder than the average person to complete tasks we would normally take for granted. Joe's spirit animal is an elephant because he wishes he had their memory. His favorite holiday tradition is eating fattening food and watching "Home Alone."

Listen to your elders' claims that wearing a ballcap all the time will make you go bald.

Most people are surprised to know that I have been skydiving!

His spirit animal is a wolf because it's NC State's mascot (his alma mater). This is also the reason if Jeff were a crayon he would be the color red.

My hidden talent is juggling!

Mark would want the super power of healing people. He believes the greatest strengths of our organization are the staff, facility, and opportunity to serve. A golden retriever is his spirit animal because he is calm, loving, loyal, and happy - he says, "If I had a tail, it would always be wagging." Mark is inspired by his wife's strength, kindness, and sincerity. If Mark was a crayon he would be the color mac & cheese.

Jon would want the super power of mind reading and his favorite emoji is the hugging one. He believes the strengths of our organization stem from the supportive and inclusive environment among our staff. Jon's dad inspires him because he spent the better part of his life sacrificing for his family. Jon says he is his hero. Thelma's spirit animal is an owl because of its curious nature and capacity to see beyond what meets the eye. If Thelma were a crayon she would be the color purple because it represents creativity, peace and devotion.

My favorite holiday tradition is eating as a family and talking about our childhood.

THELMA WILLIAMS
PROGRAM DIRECTOR II

Most people call me "Coach Breezy"

Breezy believes one strength of our organization is being able to offer a place for kids that may not have one of their own. His favorite family traditions are reunions and his spirit animal is a wolf. Breezy is inspired by anyone who gives their time to children.
